

Resources for Facility-Based Care Providers:

- COVID-19 Emergency Tips - provides support specifically designed for long term care staff, in a community based setting
- Dementia Care Practice Recommendations - provides sound principles and practices for quality care for people living with dementia
- Professional Care Providers' Web Page - provides resources designed to help long term care professionals meet the challenges of Alzheimer's disease

Resources for Medical Providers and Clinicians:

- Emergency Care - provides guidance on caring for older adults in the emergency department / prevention and management of delirium during the COVID-19 pandemic
- Medicare Telemedicine - provides E&M codes for cognitive assessment
- Alzheimer's Association Health Systems/Clinician webpage - provides a full array of resources customized for medical professionals, for dementia care

Resources for Families and Communities at Large:

- Coronavirus Tips for Dementia Caregivers - provides guidance for those who are providing care at home or have family members living in a long term care community.
- FREE HELPLINE: 800.272.3900 - provides support and information available 24/7 to anyone, anytime, for any reason:
- Community Resource Finder - helps community members find much needed resources in the geographic area of their loved one
- Free E-Education Programs - provides online education for caregivers
- Full Caregiver Support Offerings - provides caregivers guidance with guidance to navigate each phase of Alzheimer's disease
- On-Line Support Groups - Virtual platforms ideally designed for remote participation